

NHS receives Met Life Grant

NHS received a grant from the MetLife Foundation to promote home ownership to multicultural women. The program includes media outreach material with the message that homeownership is available through the educational and financing program at NHS.